INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors
Tandem Securities, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Tandem Securities, Inc. (the Company) as of December 31, 2007, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity and cash flows for the period October 25, 2006 to December 31, 2007 that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Tandem Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2007 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period October 25, 2006 to December 31, 2007 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information contained in Schedules 1 through 5 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

TANDEM SECURITIES, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2007

1 - Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

Tandem Securities, Inc. (the Company) is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company was organized on March 15, 2006 and was granted membership in FINRA effective October 25, 2006. The Company concentrates in the marketing of mutual funds and annuities covering the state of Kansas. A substantial part of commission income is generated through one carrier.

Statement of Cash Flows

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all cash and investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. There were no cash equivalents at December 31, 2007.

Furniture and Equipment

Furniture and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is provided on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of assets, which are generally five years. Assets acquired under capital leases are capitalized and amortized over a period not in excess of applicable lease terms. Expenditures for major renewals and improvements are capitalized. Expenditures for maintenance and repair are charged to expense as incurred. When equipment is retired or otherwise disposed of, the related costs and accumulated depreciation or amortization are removed from the accounts, and any gain or loss is reflected in income.

Commissions Revenue

Commissions are recorded as revenue once the carrier or mutual fund company confirms that payment has been received and the commission earned.

Promotional Costs

Promotional costs including advertising are expensed as incurred. There were no promotional costs incurred during the period October 25, 2006 to December 31, 2007.

TANDEM SECURITIES, INC.

1 - Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Operating Expenses

The Company has an expense sharing agreement with T & M Financial, Inc. (T&M). T&M agrees to pay 100% of the rent for the shared space which includes cleaning, utilities, meeting room access, copy and supply access, parking, and 100% of the payroll and benefit expenses for the shared employees.

2 - Income Tax Status

The Company, with the consent of its stockholder, has elected to be taxed under sections of the federal and state of Kansas income tax law, which provide that, in lieu of corporation income taxes, the stockholder accounts for the Company's items of income, deductions, losses and credits. As a result of this election, no income taxes have been recognized in the accompanying financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL REQUIRED
BY SEC RULE 17a-5 FOR A BROKER-DEALER CLAIMING
AN EXEMPTION FROM SEC RULE 15c3-3

The Board of Directors
Tandem Securities, Inc.:

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplementary schedules of Tandem Securities, Inc. (the Company) as of December 31, 2007 and for the period October 25, 2006 to December 31, 2007, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our audit procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, the recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13, or in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2007, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
